Jeremy serves as the Associate Director for Alumni Relations at The University of Akron, and is responsible for engaging the entire alumni body through programs and services that link alumni to The University of Akron. He oversees the recruitment, development, training and management of senior volunteers, including The University of Akron National Alumni Board of Directors.

He has been with UA since November of 2004 where he began his career as an intern in the Athletics Ticket Office. In December of 2005, Jeremy was named the Interim Director of Ticket Operations and held that role until April of 2006, when he accepted a position in Alumni Relations as an Assistant Director. In September of 2009, Jeremy became the Associate Director and has been developing alumni engagement strategies that coincide with the universities' new strategic plan.

Jeremy has a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and a master's degree in Education both from The University of Akron. He has been active with the Road Runner Akron Marathon Expo, the Salvation Army and the Greater Akron Chamber Young Professionals Network. Jeremy and his wife, Mehgan, live in Stow with their son Evan.
